THE NINE-POINT PLAN

TO GROW THE SOUTH AFRICAN ECONOMY AND CREATE MUCH-NEEDED JOBS

#9PointPlan

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

BACKGROUND

During his State of the Nation Address in Parliament, Cape Town in February 2015, President Jacob Zuma, among other things, announced the Nine-Point Plan to grow the economy and create much-needed jobs.

The Nine-Point Plan was a response to surmountable challenges affecting South Africa, which included:

- i. electricity challenges;
- ii. inadequate economic infrastructure in general;
- iii. unwieldy regulatory processes which delay investment; and
- iv. insufficient government coordination, which contributes to investor uncertainty.

In addition to the projected growth of 2% in 2015, the Nine-Point Plan could potentially accelerate the growth of the economy by 0,8% in the short term and 1% in the medium to long term.
